WHEREAS, the timber industry has long been and continues to be an important segment of the economy of the Black Hills of western South Dakota, and

WHEREAS, its contribution to the economic welfare is reflected throughout the entire state in its production of lumber and other wood products, and

WHEREAS, this industry, totaling more than $5,000,000 annually, provides employment for many of our citizens in harvesting, transportating, construction, and various other related occupations,

NOW, THEREFORE, I, NILS A. BOE, Governor of the State of South Dakota, commend the merchants of Deadwood and area for their efforts in giving recognition to the industry, and join them in declaring Saturday, July 17, 1965, as in Deadwood, South Dakota, and encourage participation in the attractive events which have been arranged for its appropriate observance.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota to be affixed on this 23rd day of June in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and sixty-five.

Nils A. Boe
